

PLADCO Overview

Planning And Development Co. Ltd. (PLADCO) is a Saudi Consulting, Engineering, Procurements and Construction Company. It has been a contributor to Saudi Arabia's industrial and infrastructure sectors since 2009 with reliable, multi-dimensional construction services.

Currently, PLADCO is well-recognized among the leaders in the fields of oil, gas, petrochemicals, mining, power, water, marine, ICT, security, safety, defense, aerospace and investment sectors. In addition to its role within a leading company responsible for major construction work in the Kingdom and the wider Gulf region, PLADCO has established itself as the contractor of choice for an array of esteemed clients. With a reputation for efficient, impeccable service, the company continues to expand its Consulting, Engineering, Procurements and Construction expertise, incorporating the latest and most advanced industry technologies.

PLADCO can meet all requirements of infrastructure, civil and building construction services, industrial mechanical (oil, gas & petrochemical) construction services, and electro-mechanical construction services. We can provide plant expansion and ground-up construction services for Lump Sum Turnkey (LSTK), Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC), and Lump Sum Building (LSPB) projects. By combining technical expertise with immense knowledge of local markets and rich human capital, PLADCO ensures ample resources for the most demanding construction, operations, or maintenance projects.
